  - a. Since the last time we met, we have had winter guard, solo ensemble contests- they have done well. We had 109 students do solos. There is nothing better than performing a solo in terms of getting better at your instrument. It takes a huge amount of guts to learn and go in a room with a judge and perform. I was proud of our kids. Indoor percussion and winter guard shows are going well. March performance would love everyone to come listen. Mid-winter concert week before spring break. Concert style pieces. We play the pieces the judges will hear. I enjoy getting to know the freshman/teaching the freshman.
